

Gain More Power, Control and Direction to Tackle Your Debt in Less than an Hour... I Promise!

If you're serious about getting out of debt, you can't do it alone! That's why I developed the Debt-Free Power Play. As an overspending divorced mother of two teenagers, I have experienced all the emotions, issues and challenges that accompany a compulsive spending addiction. During my struggles, I discovered tools, techniques and resources that helped me navigate this time in my life. I compiled those tools and resources to guide you on your quest to gain more power, control and direction now that you've decided to tackle your debt.

Your first step to gaining more power, control and direction in your life when tackling your debt is to sign up for your personal Power Play consultation with me. Once you've registered, we can schedule your one-on-one Power Play and I will send you a brief questionnaire to complete. Your responses to the questionnaire will give me an idea about your biggest concerns so we can make the best use of our time together.

During our call, we will map out strategies that will give you the fastest results for your specific concerns. As I mentioned earlier, I have experienced all the difficulties compulsive overspending causes. The Power Play will provide you with direct access to my experience, including the specific, proven-effective resources and tools I've developed over the years. You'll benefit by applying this information to your personal situation and avoid those spending traps that lurk around every corner. As a result, you'll gain positive momentum, pay off your credit cards and swiftly move forward to a debt-free life.

Here are some examples of topics we can discuss during your personal Power Play:

- Personalized strategies to avoid falling back into unhealthy habits.
- How to be financially savvy and feel safe, secure and confident.
- Coping strategies for the stress that debt causes every day.
- How to avoid the biggest debting traps.
- Powerful ways to transition into a debt-free life.

Don't wait to take advantage of this unique offer!
